

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, The Humbolt High School Class of 1952 is gathering to celebrate their graduation of 60 years ago; and,

Whereas, The graduates of the Class of 1952 have lived lives of service in their diverse capacities and circumstances—serving their family, church, community, state and country, and these contributions constitute true success in life regardless of what their dreams and life goals were in 1952; and,

Whereas, The classmates have much catching up to do, so they have decided to share time together to socialize; and,

Whereas, For this evening, tales of sporting triumphs and defeats, who dated whom, and discussions of various teachers and their attributes or lack thereof will abound; and,

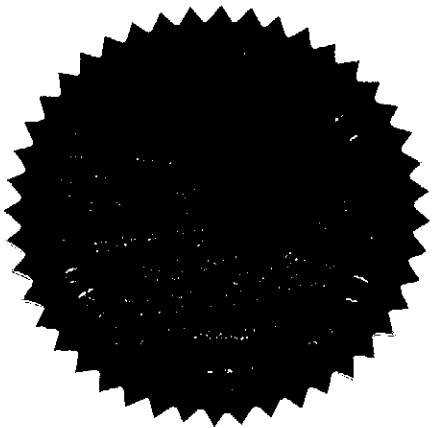

Whereas, Although the alumni may have less hair and more substance, all will marvel at how much their classmates have stayed the same; and,

Whereas, Friendship and camaraderie will be the order of the evening, and it is appropriate for the Governor to make note of this South Dakota gathering:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim August 17, 2012, as in South Dakota, and I encourage these fine men and women to enjoy their reunion and return often to this great native state of theirs.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fourteenth Day of August in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Twelve.
